

THE POWER OF A FATHER

FACING THE FATHER WOUND – Part II.

The Power of a Father!

As men, in a culture under attack, we need an understanding of mature masculinity—a vision and direction we can pursue with our sons! We need tools, methods, and ideas to help us become Godly men and from which to equip our sons and our daughters. We need to grow up!

Jacob – the patriarch of Israel – the father of a nation – is a troubling character in the Old Testament. He is conniving and he is spiritual too. He has moments of strong faith as well as of fear. His family is sometimes in disarray, and yet at the end he is the one who sets it straight. Jacob, whose very name suggests "deceiver," is renamed by God as "Israel" -- "one who has struggled with God." And an entire nation is named after this patriarch -- the nation of Israel. Jacob is a bit too much like us -- with very human strengths and weaknesses, but a man with a striving for spiritual things. From this imperfect man we learn important lessons of faith. Especially, we learn about God's grace. Time to engage—enjoy the Adventure!

The Power of a Father – A DIFFICULT CONFRONTATION – Genesis 31:1-55

1. A CHANGE OF CHARACTER → When Jacob left Beersheba and headed for Haran, he was embarking on a painful journey that was orchestrated by the Lord to bring him face-to-face with himself and his character weakness. But before he could see himself as he really was, he needed to come “face-to-face” with God. Like many of us who have character weaknesses of one sort or another when we embark on our own spiritual journey, Jacob didn’t yet realize how serious his problem really was. Ironically, God used Jacob’s Uncle Laban—a very dishonest and selfish man—to reflect Jacob’s own character weakness.
2. Live in Reality =
 1. CHARACTER COUNTS → Overcoming character weakness is usually a process that takes both time and some painful experiences. God designs experiences and utilizes events and circumstances to uncover character weaknesses and to assist us in overcoming those weaknesses.
 2. TELL YOUR STORY → God uses our personal journeys in overcoming character weaknesses to help others in overcoming their weaknesses—even those who may have used our weaknesses for their own selfish purposes.

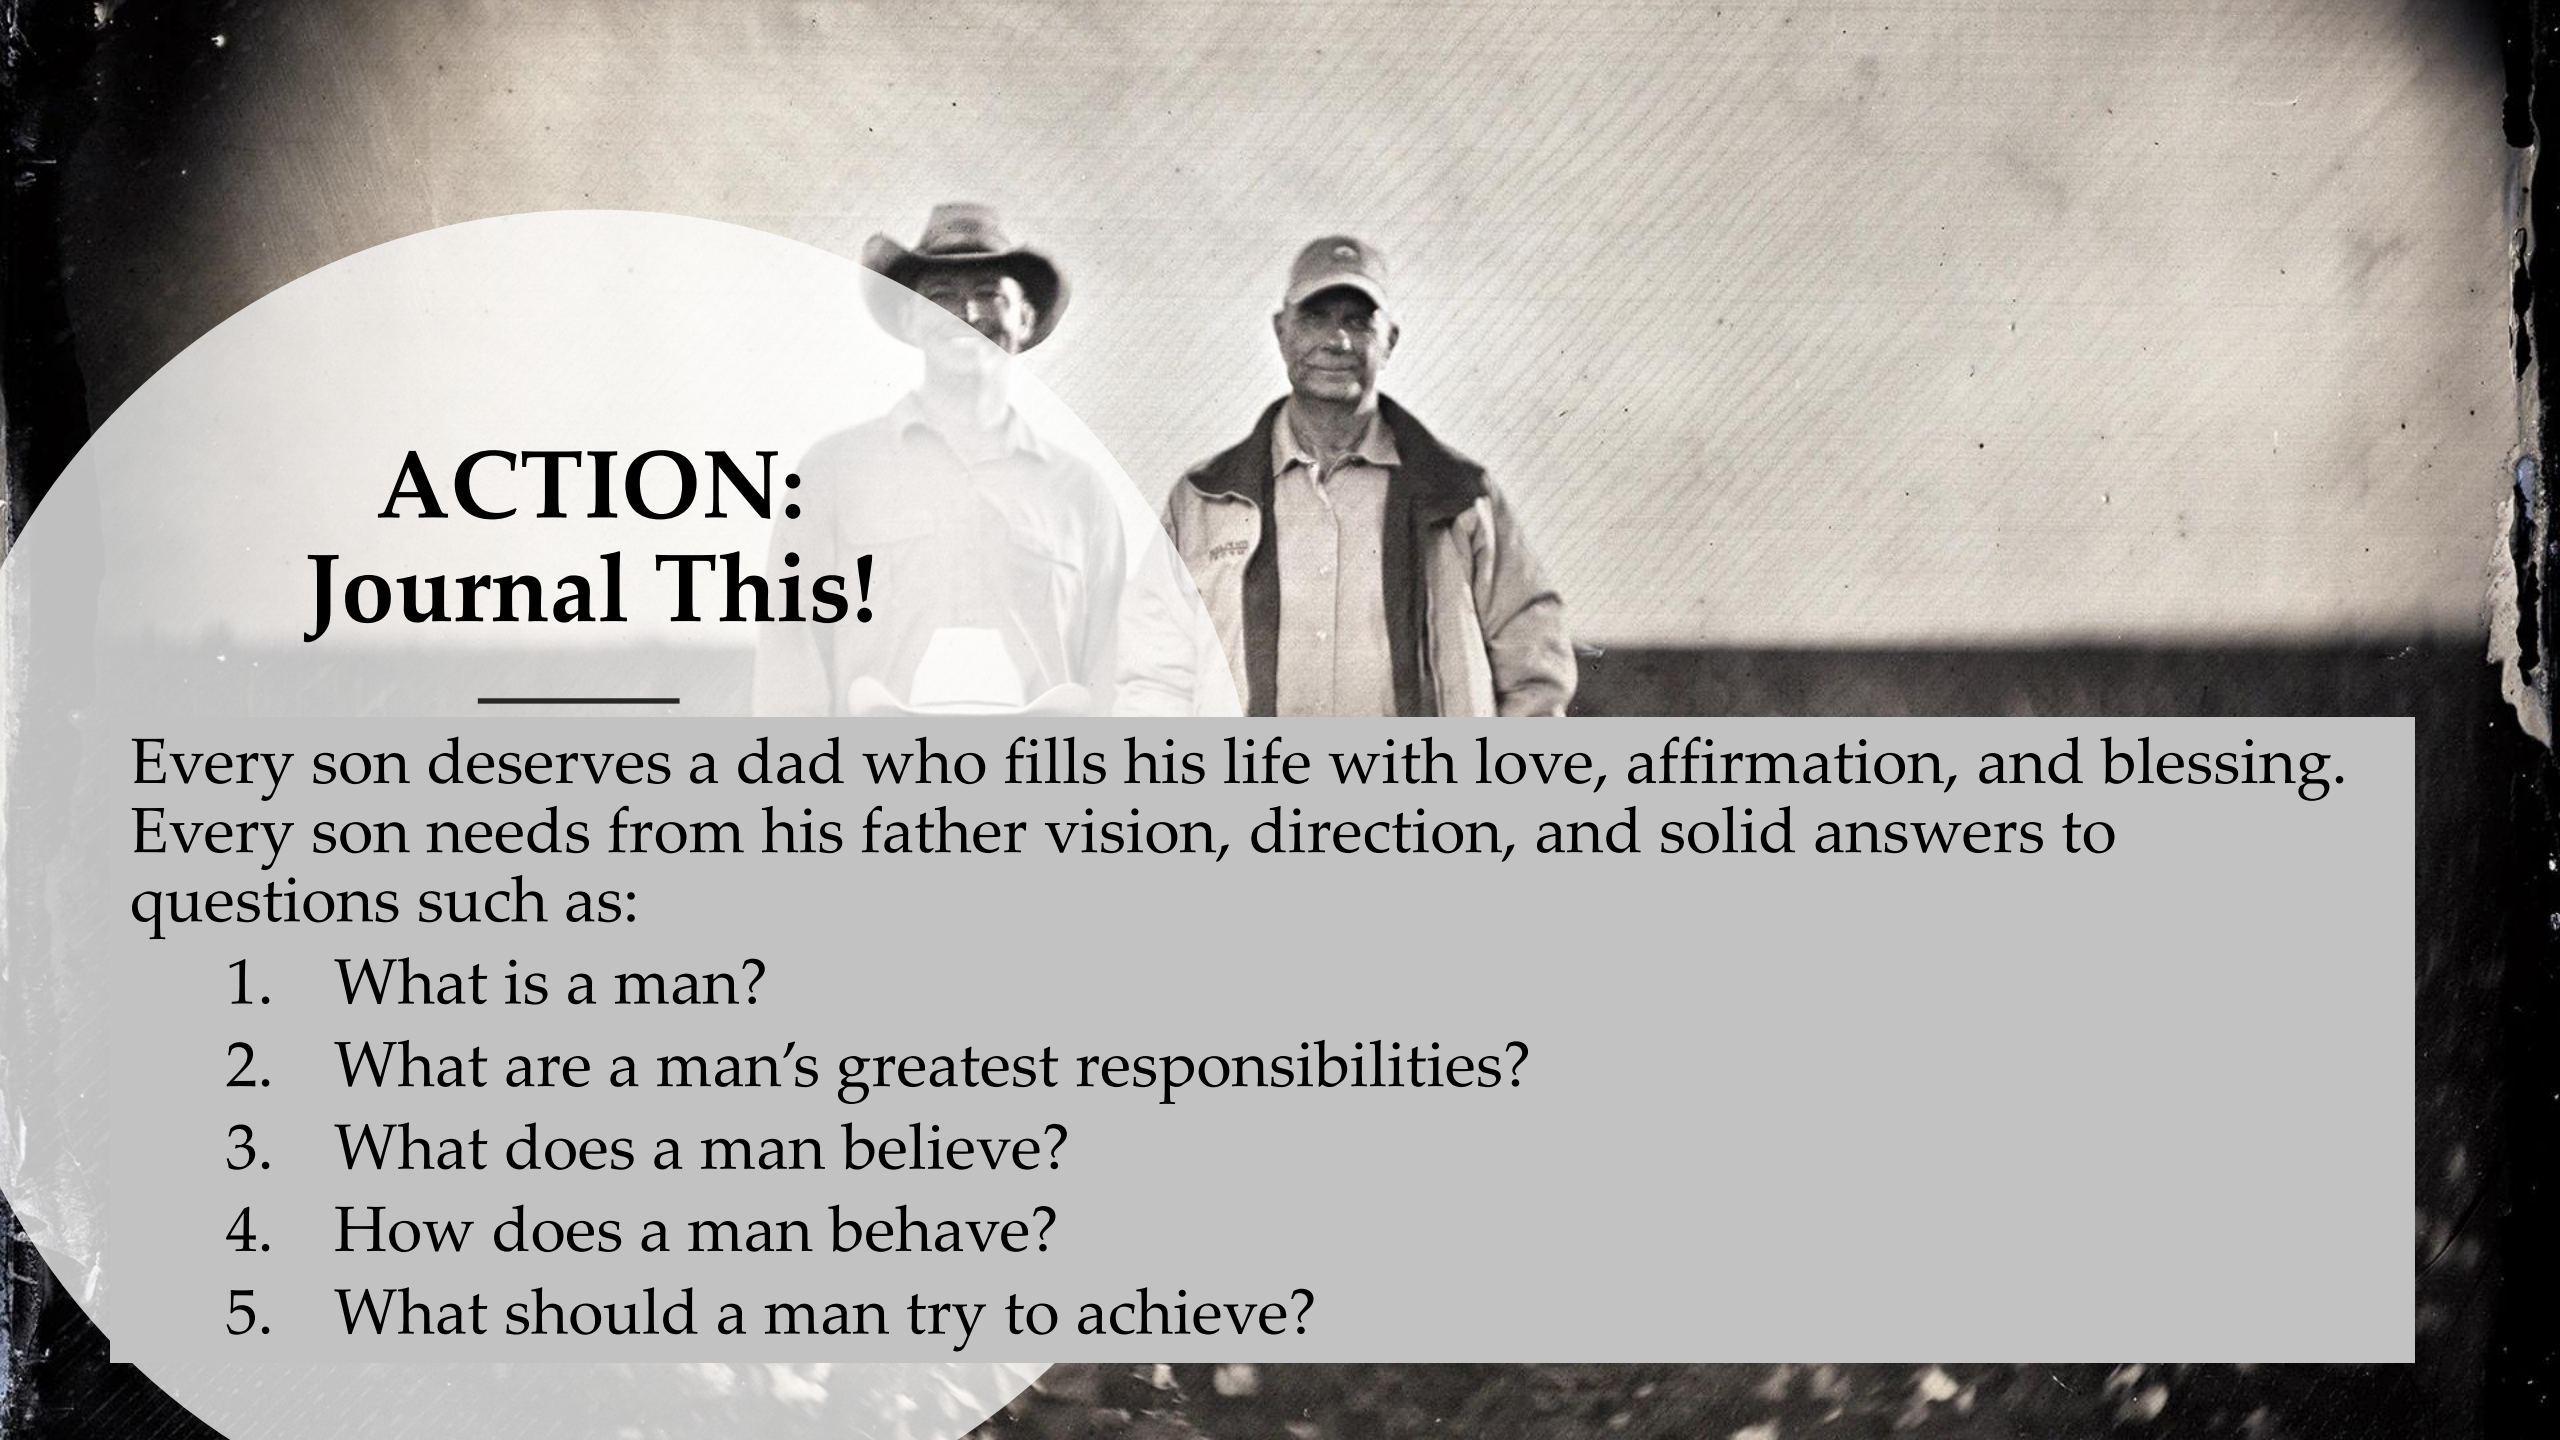

The Power of a Father – FACING THE FATHER WOUND. – Psalm 68:5

Resource: The Sacred Romance – Drawing Closer to the Heart of God by John Eldredge. Chapter 3 – The Message of the Arrows.

1. FACING YOUR ARROWS → To allow our hearts to heal, we must face our Arrows. You must stop and take time to thoughtfully, honestly, and tenderly answer these questions: How have you handled the affliction that has pierced your heart? How did the ARROWS come to you? Where did they land? Are they still there? What have you done as a result?
2. ARROWS FROM YOUR YOUTH → What hurt you? Most of the defining Arrows of our lives strike when we are young. For it is then that our hearts are most vulnerable and we are least guarded, least able to deal with the pain. Write down a word or sentence that captures for you the significant Arrows from your youth. Psalm 51:6.
3. THE MESSAGE → What was the Message of each Arrow? It's not so much the pain you've experienced, but what you've learned from it. What did the Arrow say about you? About God? About others? About life in general? Can you hear those messages still playing in your life today?
4. HOW WE RESPOND → There are two basic ways we handle the Arrows. First, we just deaden our heart. Secondly, we divide life into two parts. On the outside, all is duty and survival. But in secret, we find something to give us a taste of intimacy and adventure we were made for. Where do you go for a taste of intimacy or a taste of adventure these days?
5. THE VOW → How do you respond or react? Commitments form never to be in that position again, never to know that sort of pain again. The result is an approach to life that we often call our personality. The commitments are something like vows – "I will never try that again."

6. A WAY TOWARD HEALING → The way you handled the Arrows do not have to be the end of the story. You do not have to be ruled by it all. Jesus quoted Isaiah 61:1-3 when he stepped onto the stage.
7. RENOUNCE THE VOW → The only thing more tragic than the tragedy that happens to us is the way we handle it—the choices we make, the person we become, the life we live (or don't live). See Luke 17:31-33. The things we do to protect and preserve our hearts usually end up hurting us more. We must renounce our vows. Ephesians 4:26, 27. Unresolved emotional wounds create spiritual strongholds in our hearts.
8. GRIEVE THE WOUND → It is so important for us to grieve our losses. It is the only honest thing to do. For in grieving we admit the truth: We lost something very dear, and it hurt so much. Tears are healing. They help to open and cleanse the wound. Matthew 5:4.
9. REJECT THE MESSAGE → We must reject the lie that has so long defined us. Because of the wound, because the message was delivered by an Arrow, it sinks in deep and feels authoritative. But the fact is, nearly every message of every Arrow is untrue. You are loved. You are not alone. God does care.
10. IMAGINE A GOOD FATHER → Imagining what a “good father” would say and do, and then trying to live our life accordingly in all our relationships can help heal. Take the wound to our Heavenly Father by examining how we have projected our earthly father onto our Heavenly Father. We must be willing to forgive. Forgiveness isn't about forgetting about the pain your father has caused, but it's letting go of resentment or frustration that steals your freedom and peace.

ACTION: Journal This!

Every son deserves a dad who fills his life with love, affirmation, and blessing. Every son needs from his father vision, direction, and solid answers to questions such as:

1. What is a man?
2. What are a man's greatest responsibilities?
3. What does a man believe?
4. How does a man behave?
5. What should a man try to achieve?
