

AARON: THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE UGLY.

Aaron's life is a mirror of human leadership—marked by obedience, failure, and redemption. He was chosen, flawed, and deeply human. Yet God used him to shape a nation. His story reminds us that spiritual leadership is not about perfection, but about surrender, accountability, and reverence.

- Have you ever led others in a way that compromised your values?
- What does reverent worship look like in your daily life?

THE GOOD...

Aaron the Helper: Standing with Moses

God said, 'There's your brother Aaron, the Levite. Isn't he a good speaker? He's on his way to meet you and will be glad to see you. Speak to him. Tell him what to say. I'll be right there with you as you speak and with him as he speaks, teaching you step by step.

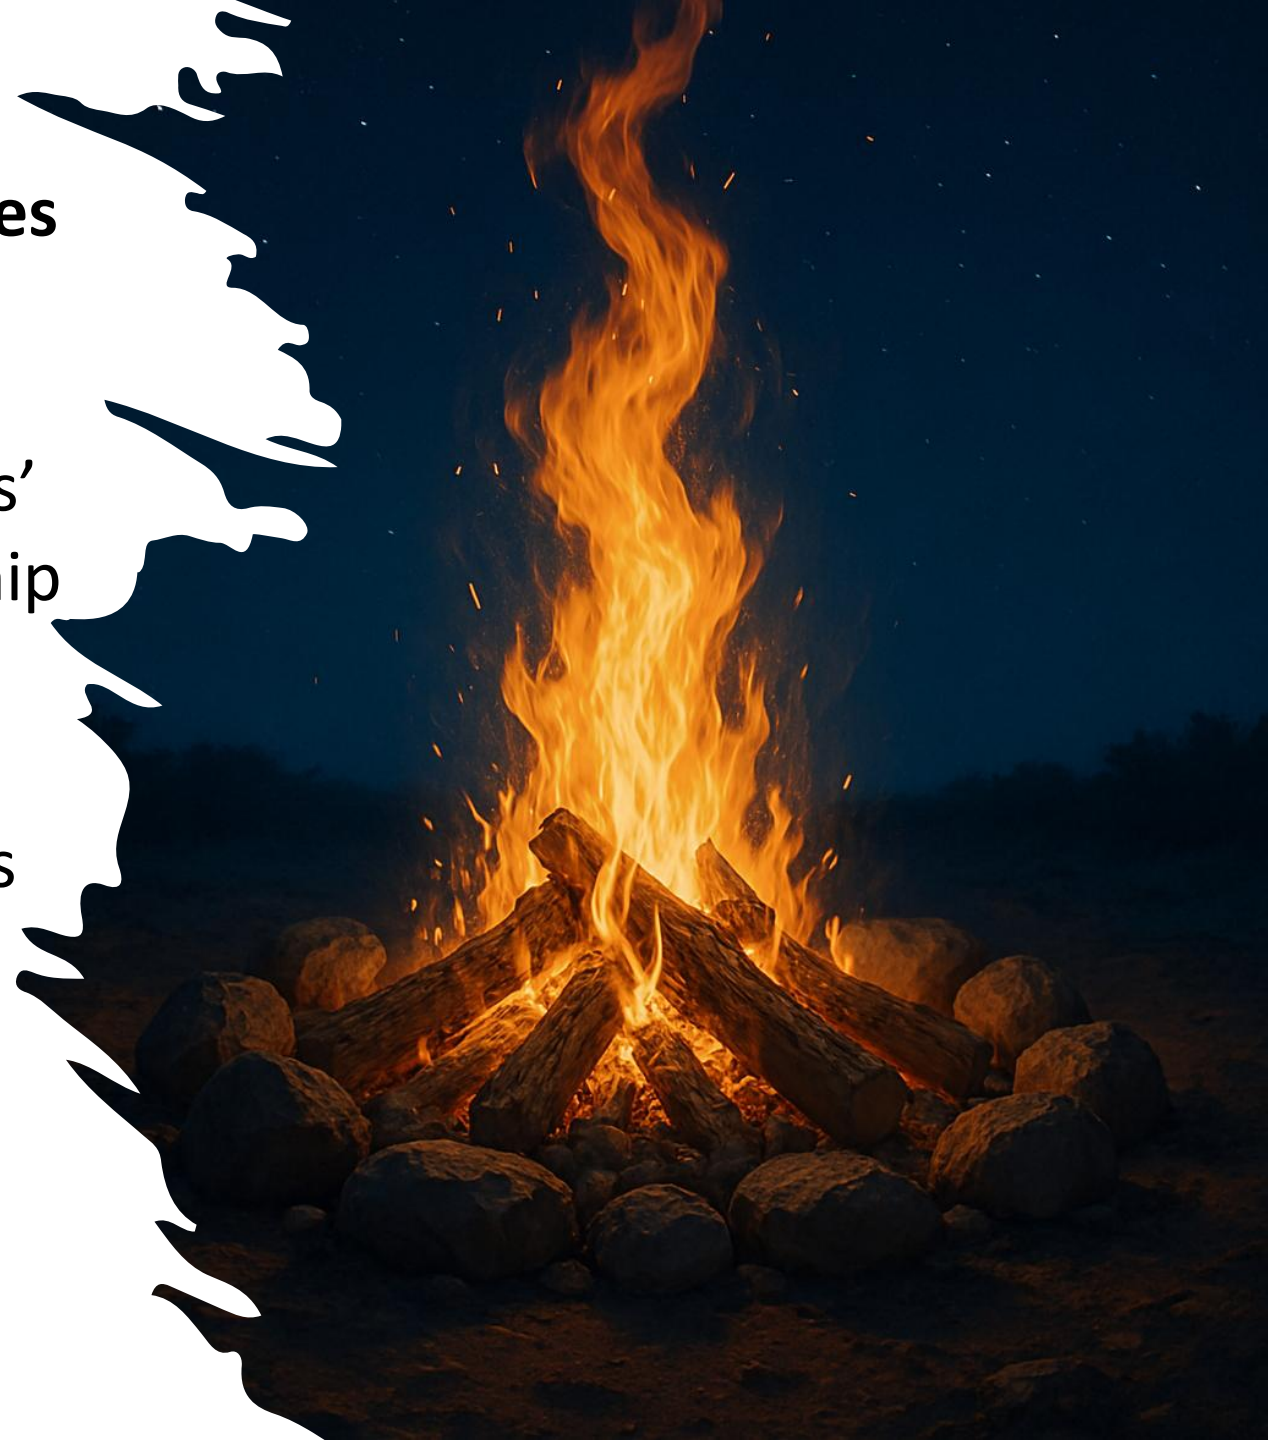

Exodus 4:14-16 (MSG)

THE GOOD...

Aaron the Helper — Standing with Moses

- Aaron was chosen by God to be Moses' mouthpiece. He stepped into leadership not because he was perfect, but because he was available.
- God worked through Aaron's strengths (his eloquence) and Moses' weaknesses (his fear of speaking).
- Leadership often begins with obedience, not perfection.

THE BAD...

Aaron and the Golden Calf — When Leadership Fails

Aaron told them, ‘Take off the gold rings from the ears of your wives, sons, and daughters and bring them to me.’ They all did it. He took the gold, melted it down, and cast it into the shape of a calf. The people said, ‘O Israel! These are your gods who brought you up from Egypt!’

Exodus 32:2-4 (MSG)

THE BAD...

Aaron and the Golden Calf — When Leadership Fails

- Aaron caves under pressure and leads the people into idolatry.
- His failure wasn't just personal—it led an entire nation astray.
- Leadership without conviction is dangerous. Aaron knew better, but he didn't stand firm.

THE UGLY...

Aaron's Sons — The Cost of Irreverence

Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron, took their censers, put hot coals and incense in them, and offered 'strange fire' to God—something God had not commanded. Fire blazed out from God and burned them to death before God.

Leviticus 10:1-2 (MSG)

THE UGLY...

Aaron's Sons — The Cost of Irreverence

- Aaron's sons acted carelessly in sacred service, and the consequences were immediate and severe.
- This moment underscores the holiness of God and the seriousness of spiritual leadership.
- Aaron's grief was met with God's command for silence—a moment of divine discipline and deep sorrow.

WHATS NEXT???

The person who trusts me will not only do what I'm doing but even greater things, because I, on my way to the Father, am giving you the same work to do that I've been doing. You can count on it.

John 14:12 (MSG)
